Tour Information for Thursday, August 24, 2017

3:30 -7:00 pm

The Richard Nixon Library & Museum

See the birthplace and final resting place of America's 37th president, along with extensive documentation on his life and presidency, at The Richard Nixon Library & Museum. Walk through the grounds and tour the 22 presidential museum galleries. Learn more about Nixon's presidency from the archives, containing 46 million pages of White House records from his inauguration in 1969 to his resignation in 1974. Step into the full-size replica of the White House East Room. To get a sense for the formative years of the late president, head out back to explore the restored home where Nixon was born and raised. Don't forget to see the Marine One presidential helicopter, which was used by presidents Kennedy, Johnson, Nixon, and Ford. You also can visit the burial place and memorial site for Nixon and his wife, Pat.
